Craig Seth Barr died suddenly in his sleep from heart failure at his home in Edson, Chippewa County, WI on December 20, 2022. He was the son of Arnold Barr and Roslyn Feinstein. Born April 27, 1957 in Jackson Heights, Queens, NY. Craig had a brother, Michael, who passed early in his life. He was raised by his father's mother, Sophie until she died. From his father's last marriage, Craig had stepbrothers and a stepsister. He later ended up with foster parents, Harvey and Rita Margolin and their daughters. Craig married Michelle Hompe in November of 1988 in New York and they remained partners for over 30 years. They have a son, Craig Micheal and daughters, Bridgette, Samantha and Sophia, the last of whom was born after the family moved to Wisconsin. Craig had many jobs and loved learning. He went to Old Woodbury in Long Island to learn music, which became his passion early in life. He learned the harmonica early on and the guitar in college, the latter becoming his instrument of choice. Not only did he play in several bands throughout his life, including the Craig Barr and Grill Band, he recorded many albums on his own time that he would sell person-to-person. He was an avid bicycle rider, an amazing swimmer and a 1st Dan black belt in Tae Kwon Do. Craig will be missed gravely by his family and friends. He was a kind and giving person.
