

Kristine M. Emerson

A private family service was held

Kristine M. Emerson, 55, died Thursday, October 22, 2020 at the Homeplace in Stanley under the care of St. Joseph's Hospice. She was born on July 20, 1965 in Virginia the daughter of Glen and Patricia (Urice) Newman. She married Russell Emerson who later died. Kristine waitressed for many years and loved her customers. She was also a writer and loved reading. She is survived by her children, Nick Emerson and Camber (Adrian) Craven, a grandchild on the way and two brothers, Mark Brown and Paul Brown.

A private family service was held.