Kevin L. Kuehni, 63, of Boyd, died Monday, November 23, 2020, due to injuries from an auto accident and complications from COVID-19. He was born on August 27, 1957, to Elmer and Marie (Huber) Kuehni. He grew up on the family farm near Maple Hill and graduated from Stanley-Boyd High School in 1975. Kevin worked for Chippewa Concrete Services and was a member of Local 268 for 26 years before cancer forced him into early retirement. Kevin loved riding snowmobile, and his Harley-Davidson motorcycle and Polaris RZR. He was an avid Packer fan, fisherman, and deer hunter, and a member of the Halfway High Riders' Snowmobile Club, Pike Lake Ice Fishing A Team, Geezers Harley Group, Halfway 8 o'clock Coffee Club, Pike Lake mini golf video gaming crew, and one of the founding members of the Kuehni Outfitters' Club. Kevin also donated his labor to help build the Otter Lake day use pavilion and the two Highway 29 "Welcome to Stanley" signs. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He is survived by his parents, Elmer and Marie of Stanley; his sister, Kathy (Mark) Farley of Eau Claire; his niece, Brittany (Mitch) Miller and their children, Mason and Zachary, of Onalaska; and his niece, Breanna (Eddie) Lund of Lakeville, MN. He will also be dearly missed by his many friends and loyal companion, Spot.
