

Bruce Francis Licht

A private family committal service will take place in Sacred Heart Cemetery-Edson.

Bruce Francis Licht, 73, of Boyd, Wisconsin, passed away on March 19, 2021 after a two year battle with cancer. His wife of 52 years and family was at his side.

Bruce was born on October 6, 1947 to Embert and Violetta (Kenealy) Licht in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin. While growing up on the family farm, Bruce attended Stanley-Boyd High School and graduated in 1965. Following high school, Bruce went on to attend Chippewa Valley Technical College for Carpentry. Bruce was also a member of the Carpenter's Union 1074. Bruce also volunteered for the Boyd-Edson Delmar Fire Department and was a member of the All Saints Parish.

On May 11, 1968, Bruce was united in marriage to Pamela Zais at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Boyd, Wisconsin. There they were blessed with three children. Throughout Bruce's life he volunteered his time for many building projects and his family considered him a "Jack of all Trades". With a deep passion for farming, he returned to the family farm in 1979 with his wife and children and continued to farm for 43 years.

Bruce had many talents and was a part of numerous projects throughout his life, but he truly enjoyed spending time with his family and so cherished his grandchildren.

Bruce is survived by his loving wife and best friend, Pamela, his (3) children, Jeff and Kelly Licht in Boyd, Wisconsin and their children Taylor and Kayte, Jamie and Rhonda Licht Prairie Du Sac, Wisconsin and their children Zach, Zane, and Zoe. Julie and Larry Cayo Shorewood, Wisconsin their children Chloe and Chase. Two brothers Cletus (Carole) Licht and Dean Licht (Jeanie) both of Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Sister-in-law Delores Long, and brother-in-law Tom Briggs and many nieces, nephews, family and friends. Bruce was preceded in death by his parents, Embert and Violetta Licht, sister-in-law Beverly Milas, and brother-in-law James Milas, and sister-in-law Carol Peloquin.

A private family committal service will take place in Sacred Heart Cemetery-Edson.

Plombon Funeral Service assisted the family with arrangements.

Bruce's family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to Father Felix, the Staff and Doctors of the Sacred Heart Cancer Center and also the Heartland Hospice Staff for the great care that was given.
