Visitation: 10am - Noon before the service

Idyll Viola Lodahl, 90, of Boyd, passed away on Oct 2, 2021, in her home. Idyll was born January 15, 1931, to the late Christoph and Katherine (Schuh) Goetz. Idyll grew up in Java, South Dakota, and moved to Cudahy, WI, in 1950 and met her future husband Lester in 1951.

On February 13, 1954, Lester and Idyll were married in Milwaukee, WI. Idyll worked in Cudahy at various stores and lived in various places with Lester before settling with Lester in the town of Colburn where they farmed for most of their lives. Lester and Idyll had nine children together: four sons and five daughters. Idyll enjoyed raising a large family and playing whiffle ball in the backyard with her kids and neighbors. Idyll's home was always open for visits and a cup of coffee, where opinions were always clear with no reading between the lines necessary. Idyll also enjoyed playing cards and learning new card games even if she didn't want to.

Idyll was blessed with 29 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren. Her survivors include her four sons, Steven (Joanne), Ernest, Franklin, and Joseph (Rebecca) and five daughters, Glenda (Bruce) Schuebel, RaNae Lodahl, Bennita (Randy) Wellsandt, Kris (LaVerne) Fredrickson, and Shanda (Bob Stevens) Lodahl. And also her two sisters-in-law, Violet and Viola Goetz of South Dakota, and one brother-in-Law Carrole (Kelly) Lodahl. Idyll was preceded in death by her husband Lester (December 1997); her parents Christoph and Katherine (Schuh) Goetz; three brothers, Ray (Viola), Robert, and Oliver; and three sisters, Amelia (Chip) Walth, Edna (Paul) Gustafson, and Ella (Butch) Wolf.

Funeral services will be held October 11th at noon at the Plombon Funeral Home in Stanley, with Pastor Ken Schmidt officiating.

Visitation will be from 10am to noon before the service.

Family will be serving as pall bearers.

Burial will follow at the Yellow River Cemetery in rural Gilman.

A special thanks to St. Croix Hospice who with their care, allowed Idyll to stay at home around family for the last year and a half.
