Elaine T. Schubert, 95 of Des Plaines, IL passed away early on Wednesday, June 14, 2023. She was born Elaine Teresa Beaudot on October 13, 1927 in Hannibal, WI the daughter of the late Joseph and Lillian (McConville) Beaudot. Elaine's family moved to Stanley when she was young, and she attended Fagan Grade School, St. Anne's Catholic School and graduated from Stanley High School. She continued her education at a Private Business College in Eau Claire and later at DePaul University in Chicago, IL. Elaine worked as an executive Secretary/Office Manager for Dr. A. Earl Walker, at The Pullman Company, Spector, Formold Plastics, the Heritage Bank & Trust, was Secretary to Mayor Richard Withers, Blue Island, IL, at Family and Mental Health Services, Sentry Insurance, Alexian Brothers Medical Center. She attended Oakton Community College in her 70's and did medical transcription at her home until her "retirement" at age 85. As a single mom, Elaine was a school board member at District 214, Blue Island, IL in the 1970's. Elaine loved fashion, her Pontiac, her condominium and sitting in the sun on her balcony, sipping her latte with her lake view of the swans. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren, baking cookies and date nut bread. She enjoyed her Catholic faith and the rosary as well as politics, music, art, classic movies, and grammar. She was a lifelong learner, with great wit and a keen sense of humor. She was sharp and independent well into her final days. Elaine was a strong, brave, fun, little woman and she will be missed. She is survived by her daughters, Carol Elizabeth Marchetti of Morton Grove and Ellen Louise Kosman of Valparaiso, 8 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, her sister Joan Rita (Harvey) Licht of Boyd and many nieces and nephews. Elaine is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers, Leroy, Milton, and Duane and her sisters, Mary Jane "Janie" Beaudot, and LaVon "Bonnie" Katherine Kirscht.
