

MaryAnn Skripjok

Memorial service: 1pm Saturday January 15, 2022
New Life Apostolic Church - Medford, WI

MaryAnn Skripjok, 84, of Greenwood, passed away

Thursday, December 16, 2021 at Aspirus Hospital Medford. She was born April 2nd, 1937 to the late Elmer and Pearl (Freeman) Granstrom in Milwaukee. There she attended school and later moved to Lublin, WI. She was employed at Presto in Eau Claire where she made bombshells for our military. Later she went to school to get a certificate in nursing. She worked at the Zastrow Care Center in Gilman for many years as a RN and did homecare until she retired in 1999. She enjoyed reading her Bible, adult coloring books, crocheting, hairpin lace, knit-wit, search-a-words, watching old westems, playing electric organ, the accordion, plastic canvases; playing 500 Rummy, HelpYour-Neighbor, and spending time with the people who meant the most to her. She had a huge heart and always thought of others before she thought of herself. She was devoted to Jesus and His word and read His word every day until her eyesight prevented her to do so. MaryAnn was baptized on December 23, 2018 at the New Life Apostolic Church in Medford. MaryAnn is survived by her children Robin (Skipp Swanson) Mravik of Greenwood, Rose (Kerry Stransbury) Offord of Comell, three grandchildren Misty Mravik of Lublin, David and Chelsea Offord of Ellsworth, Tracy Offord of Eau Claire, and one great grandchild Marcella of Ellsworth, a brother Richard Granstrom of Gilman, and a sister Barb (Richard) Holtz of Batesville, Arkansas. She also had nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, and six step-grandchildren; Justin Mravik, Lublin, Marissa Mravik, Eau Claire, Connor Mravik, Lublin, Tyrel Mravik, Lublin, Andrew Swanson, Athens, and Rhiannan Swanson, Greenwood, of whom she loved very much. She is preceded in death by her parents and her sister Arlene.

A memorial service will be held Saturday January 15, 2022 at the New Life Apostolic Church in Medford, WI. Service will begin at 1pm.
