

Dr. Tom Tuttle, 70 of rural Boyd, died on Saturday, January 6, 2024 after a long struggle with cancer. He was born Thomas Floyd Tuttle to the late Robert and Doris (Byerly) Tuttle in Waukesha in 1953. Tom grew up in New York, Texas, Virginia, Michigan, and moved to Wisconsin after obtaining his degree as an Internal Medicine doctor.

Tom attended the University of Michigan for his undergraduate degree and Wayne State Medical School for his Medical Doctorate.

He worked as an Internal Medicine physician in Detroit, Michigan, Antigo and Stanley, Wisconsin. He met the love of his life, Christina Grantman, while working in Antigo, Wisconsin and they married on June 21, 2003 in Boyd, Wisconsin.

Tom was a lifelong learner who loved sharing his knowledge with others. His epic, rambling, emails will be missed by his family and friends. He enjoyed the outdoors, guns, his Newfoundland dogs, traveling, reading, watching old movies/TV shows, and spending time with Chris, family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Christina Grantman of Boyd, his step daughter Heather (Curt) Messer, sisters Laurie (Scott) Kopp of Galesville and St. Germaine, WI, and Amy (James) Sekel of Madison, WI, grandchildren Kevin and Kendra, nieces Kinsey (Jean) Pierre of Appleton, WI, Emily (Chris Wensch) Kopp of Wauwatosa, WI, Andler Sekel of Eau Claire, WI, Taylor Sekel of Milwaukee, WI, great-grandchildren and great nephews... and his fur buddies.

Tom is preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Doris, and his sisters, Susan and Teri.

A private family service will be held at a later date.

Plombon Funeral Service assisted the family.
