Richard L. Troyer, 69 of Boyd, died Thursday, October 08, 2020 at home under the care of St. Joseph's Hospice, with his wife, Mary Jane, by his side. Rick was born on March 27, 1951 in Stanley to the late Lawrence and Margaret (Pinter) Troyer. He grew up in Stanley and graduated from Stanley-Boyd in 1969. On June 15, 1974 he was united in marriage to Mary Jane Jaskot at St. Hedwig's-St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Thorp. Rick worked for the Falls Dairy Plant, now known ADM Stanley, as an Operator, Plant Manager and Supervisor before he retired in August 2017. He also owned Rick's Carpet Service in the Stanley area for many years and was in Life Insurance Sales. After retirement he worked part time at the Eau Claire Country Club and Whispering Pines Golf Course in Cadott. He also began employment with Great American Crop Insurance out of Eau Claire as a field agent. He thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors - camping, hunting and fishing, but he especially loved golfing and bowling with friends and family. He had so many fond memories of the Coon Gut Hunting Camp near Augusta, which had been a family tradition since 1939, and then again at Eagle Ridge Lodge near Gilman, established in 2013. He always looked forward to his annual ice fishing trip to Devil's Lake, North Dakota, as well as the biannual bear hunting trip with family and friends to Ignace, Ontario. He was happy living in the Stanley-Boyd area, close to his children and grandchildren. The joy of his life in recent years was loving and spending time with all of his young grandchildren. He is survived by his wife, Mary Jane of Boyd, his son, Mike (Michelle) of Stanley, his daughters, Melissa (Dean) Lew of Stanley and Megan (Nate) Bitney of Cornell, six grandchildren, Kelly, Amanda, Aaron and Bailey Lew and Briella and Elias Bitney, his brother, Tim (Karen) of Stanley and his sister, Linda (Cal) Maule of Nekoosa. Rick is preceded in death by his parents, his daughter, Michelle, and his brother, Billy Joe.
