

Lawrence John Urban

Memorial mass: 2pm Tuesday July 11, 2023
St. Mary of Czestochowa Catholic Church - rural Stanley
Visitation: one hour prior to service

Lawrence John Urban, 80 of Thorp, passed away on Friday, June 29, 2023 at the Clark County Health Care Center. He was born on March 20, 1943 on the family farm northeast of Thorp to the late William and Anna (Schneider) Urban.

Larry grew up in Thorp and attended Blueberry Elementary School, St. Hedwig's Catholic School and graduated from Thorp High School in 1962.

He attended Wausau Technical College for two years for Graphic Design.

Larry moved to Milwaukee shortly after and worked for WH Brady Corporation.

On a chance meeting back home in Thorp; he met his future wife Mary Ann Rudawski at Leon 'n Lil's. They were married on June 22, 1968 and started their life together in Milwaukee. The couple were blessed with four daughters, Lori, Pamela, Charlene and Julie. In the mid 80's Larry started his own business: Arrow Stump Removal.

He loved working outdoors. In 2001 Larry and Mary Ann retired to Florence, WI then later returned to their roots in Thorp. Larry found happiness in music, playing the accordion and organ-mostly for his own recreation, but found merriment in any audience. Larry was an animal lover and enjoyed his two companion springer spaniels. He found adventure in deer hunting, fishing and in his later years exploring the country roads on his Polaris Ranger. Larry is survived by his wife, Mary Ann, daughters, Lori (Brian) Rathmann, Charlene Urban and Julie (Andrew) Roth, a son in law, Matthew Miller; grandchildren, Jasmine Miller, Jacob Miller & Cooper Rathmann and one brother, William (Winnie) Urban. He is also survived by many "out-laws", nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends. Larry is preceded in death by his parents, his daughter, Pamela Miller, his sisters, Bernice Stegwell, Eleanor Halagera and Sophie Klugiewicz, one nephew, David Stegwell as well as other dear family members and friends.
